1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 25, 27-31 and 33-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Rejection grounds continue to be those set forth in the previous office action (Paper dated 4/12/07, paragraph 5).

2. Applicants' arguments filed on 7/31/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants, in their remarks, argue that:

'[a]pplicants have amended claim 25 to recite the further limitation of storing said result in a register of a microprocessor, which produces a useful, concrete, and tangible result.

Applicants have amended claim 33 to recite a computer program product embodied on a computer-readable storage medium for use with a computing device comprising a computer-readable storage medium, having computer-readable program code embodied in said medium for providing an apparatus for executing an MMX PSADBW instruction, which Applicants respectfully assert is statutory subject matter"

(emphasis added).

With respect to the arguments, the examiner carefully reviews Applicant's specification and claimed invention. It is noted that applicants haven't pointed out how/why the claim produces a useful, concrete, and tangible result. If the claim as a whole is reasonably interpreted as just solving a mathematical algorithm rather than reciting a practical application of the algorithm which produces a useful, concrete and tangible result, then it would be non-statutory. In order for claims to be statutory, claims must include a practical application with a concrete, useful, and tangible result.

However, claims 25, 27-31 and 33-34 merely disclose elements for performing mathematical function without disclosing a practical application with a concrete, useful, and tangible result, as they are pre-emptive in any application. Therefore, claims 25, 27-31 and 33-34 are directed to non-statutory subject matter. Therefore, the rejection is still proper.

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
